Attractions

The Kiten holiday village is located in one of the most famous and attractive nooks of the southern Black Sea coast where the wooded Strandzha Mountain spurs reflect into the clear sea depths. Additional tourist services, such as hunting and fishing tourism, trips to the Ropotamo River Reserve and the Strandzha Mountain Park, visits to the villages of Pismenovo and Yasna Polyana, trips to Istanbul, Turkey, are also offered at the resort. Nine beaches (beach lines) are being managed by concessionaires.

Thanks to its unique combination of marvelous beaches and picturesque woodlands intersected by rivers, the Southern Black Sea coast offers excellent opportunities for both sea and ecological tourism. Many reserves preserving the rich biological diversity of the region are located here. These are the Ropotamo Nature Park, the Reserves of Arkutino, Snake Island, and Sea Wormwood. Other reserves in the region are the Alepu Reserve, a seaside marsh separated from the sea by a strip of sand, where many types of birds migrate, and the Sand Lilies Reserve.

Practicing of various types of water sports, such as yachting, underwater fishing, underwater archeology, water-skiing, and others, are offered. Water-wheels, surf boats, jets, a banana, and beach accessories (chaise longue, umbrellas, etc.) can be hired at both beaches.

There is a Rolba slide at the Northern beach and a beach volleyball ground at the Southern beach. Excursions and picnic trips around the Strandzha Mountain Park and the Ropotamo River Reserve are offered. Acquaintance tours to coastal towns such as Primorsko, Sozopol, Duny, Nesebar, etc. are also offered. Yacht trips, boat trips, and park train rides are organized. Bicycles, rickshaws, and mopeds can be hired. A horse centre has been built in the resort, which offers training courses, hall horseback riding, open field horseback riding, a trip in a carriage. Miscellaneous amusements are offered for the children. Neptune nights, concerts, and show programmes are organized. There is a summer cinema for the movie maniacs, which shows the latest movies for the season.
